

HITLER IN THE New York Times, 1922

1. According to the second paragraph, what things have led to the growth of Hitler's movement?

2. What nickname has Hitler been called?

3. What are some of Hitler's strengths?

4. What song did the counter-demonstrators sing ("A Different Show of Power")? What is it?

5. Where is Hitler getting his support from?

6. “Hitler’s program is of less interest than his person and movement.” Why might this be so? What do you think?

7. “A sophisticated politician credited Hitler with peculiar political cleverness for laying emphasis and over-emphasis on anti-Semitism, saying ‘You can’t expect the masses to understand or appreciate your finer real aims. You must feed the masses with cruder morsels and ideas like anti-Semitism. It would be politically wrong to tell them the truth about where you are leading them.’” Why might some see Hitler as politically clever? Why might it be politically wrong to tell his followers the whole truth of his program?
